

I just want to say that since K-LOVE has been broadcasting in this area, lives have been changed! The music played has a positive influence in homes across the country and in this day and age, we need all the positive influences we can get for our families and children. There are people there that pray for one and another and those that call in with requests, who might otherwise have no hope for their particular situations. God bless K-LOVE and what they are doing!